Commissioner for Patents

Included with this communication is a copy of the Examiner's online search of the ANSI website for the ASTM D1824 standard, which was searched for and discussed during the December 4, 2009 telephonic interview with Ms. Cindy Pillote, Esq. and Mr. Charles Hauff, Esq. (interview summary sent separate from this communication). The attached web search result evidences that the ASTM D1824 standard is a publicly available standard that may be purchased. This search result is also cited on a PTO-892, included with this communication.
